This afternoon we take a cruise on the Irrawaddy River, past villages and timeless rural scenes, to the former capital of Mingum. We disembark to visit the huge unfinished pagoda with the giant Mingum Bell, believed to be the world's largest uncracked ringing bell. We cruise back to Mandalay, sipping on sunset cocktails.

▶ Enjoy another dine-around dinner at our hotel this evening.

through lush forest and mountain scenery over towering viaducts and through tunnels to the cool, serene town of Maymyo. We tour Maymyo by horse drawn coach, marveling at the beautiful old colonial villas and lush parks and gardens.

A picnic lunch will be provided in the Botanical Gardens and we return to Mandalay on a spectacular mountain road.

This evening dinner is served beside the pool whilst we are entertained by traditional Burmese dancers.

DAY 6: FRIDAY 24 FEBRUARY Mandalay – Hanoi (Vietnam)

This morning our first stop is Amarapura, capital of Burma in the 18th century and famous for its solid teak bridge and the Mahagandayon Monastery, the country's largest monastery and home to 1,200 monks. It is an amazing sight as the monks file into the dining area of the monastery. You will be invited to fill a monk's alm bowl with rice and watch the preparation of their meal, a truly remarkable experience. Nearby we visit the 1.2 kilometre long U Bein's teak bridge.

Join a luncheon flight to Hanoi aboard your Private Jet. On your arrival you will be driven across the paddy fields to Asia's most delightful capital city. We stay at the magnificent Sofitel Metropole, located near Hanoi's largest lake. You will have three nights to enjoy this fascinating city.

Tonight we are treated to an exclusive and spectacular evening of dining and entertainment within the Hanoi Opera House, itself a masterpiece of French Indochine architecture.

DAY 7: SATURDAY 25 FEBRUARY Hanoi

Hanoi is without doubt one of Asia's most beautiful cities – wide tree lined boulevards with French style architecture, narrow alleyways packed with bicycles, street markets, beautiful lakes, a magnificent Opera House and delightful low rise buildings produce a unique ambience.

Your tour of Hanoi commences with a drive through the tree lined streets, past houses that would be at home in a French village, to visit Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum and the former President's Stilt House. You will also visit the One Pillar Pagoda and the ancient Temple of Literature, five separate courtyards behind high walls dating from 1070 as Vietnam's first university.

A unique Vietnamese mode of transport continues your exploration of the city. Join your personal cyclo and visit Hanoi's Old Quarter, 36 streets with over 1,000 years of history make this area one of Vietnam's most lively and unusual places, where you can buy anything from a grave stone to silk pyjamas!

Lunch will be served at one of several excellent Vietnamese restaurants during your tour and there will be time for shopping in the Old Quarter.

This evening your cyclo awaits to take you to a performance by Vietnam's famed water puppets. After the performance we are driven to a fine Vietnamese restaurant.

DAY 8: SUNDAY 26 FEBRUARY Hanoi

▶ Today you can choose from a number of complimentary activities:

1. *Take a full day tour by road to Halong Bay, one of Vietnam's scenic wonders comprising over 3,000 islands rising from the clear emerald waters of the Gulf of Tonkin. ► Select from a choice of restaurants within our hotel on a dine-around evening.

DAY 12: THURSDAY 1 MARCH
Shanghai – Kyoto (Japan)

Enjoy a leisurely morning or some time for last minute shopping before our lunchtime flight to Kyoto.

In Japan we land at Kansai Airport and will be driven through the outskirts of Osaka to Kyoto. You will have three nights at the Westin Miyako Hotel in the former capital of Imperial Japan. Kyoto is a beautiful old world Japanese city, retaining much of its serene past and offering a wonderful opportunity to experience Japanese life and culture in a single destination.

► Choose from Japanese or Western cuisine for dinner this evening.

DAY 13: FRIDAY 2 MARCH
Kyoto

Ancient Kyoto is home to some of the finest art, crafts, culture and architecture in Japan. During this morning's tour you will visit the Golden Pavilion, Nijo Castle and the Old Imperial Palace. After lunch at a Japanese restaurant this afternoon is free.

► Enjoy a complimentary guided tour of the city's markets including the fascinating Philosopher's Walk; or stroll, shop and explore independently.

This evening gain an insight into Japanese culture as we view the life of the Geisha Girl and attend a tea ceremony prior to a fine Japanese dinner.

DAY 14: SATURDAY 3 MARCH
Kyoto

This morning we explore Japan's original capital, Nara. You will visit Todaiji Temple with its giant Buddha, the Deer Park and Kasuga Shrine, with its thousands of stone lanterns. After lunch we return to Kyoto for shopping and independent sightseeing.

► Choose from Japanese or Western cuisine for dinner this evening.

DAY 15: SUNDAY 4 MARCH
Kyoto – Brunei

This morning we transfer to Kansai Airport for our lunchtime flight to the Sultanate of Brunei, in northwest Borneo.

We arrive in Brunei this afternoon and check in to the Empire Hotel and Country Club, which reflects the opulence of the country's ruler with its stunning lobby, ornamental pools, gardens, beaches and truly sumptuous service.

► This evening enjoy a dine-around dinner and select from the restaurants within our hotel.

ANGKOR WAT, CAMBODIA

DAY 16:
MONDAY 5 MARCH
Brunei

This morning we will tour Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei's contrasting capital. The country's wealth can be seen in the magnificent 1788 room Royal Palace, the stunning gold domed mosques and elegant shopping centres. We visit Omar Ali Saifuddien Mosque, an oasis of tranquility, built in 1958 of Italian marble, gold mosaic and English stained glass with craftsmanship reflecting classical Islamic architecture. You will also visit the Royal Regalia, housing the Crown Jewels, and the Brunei Museum.

For a total contrast we see Kampung Ayer, a sprawling water village where 30,000 people live in houses built on stilts above the water.

► After lunch you can relax at our hotel; join a tour to the Royal Polo Grounds and see the hundreds of polo horses owned by His Majesty, the Sultan of Brunei; or take a boat trip into the Ulu

TRAVEL INSURANCE We suggest that all passengers take out travel insurance. The price of your tour includes (not included on Private Jet Only packages) a travel insurance policy underwritten and managed by Cerberus Special Risks Pty Ltd ABN 81 115 932 173 AFS License No. 308461 and underwritten by certain Underwriters at Lloyd's. Travel insurance is provided as part of this package. Any information provided in the brochure is general and does not consider your objectives, financial situation or needs. To decide if this travel insurance meets your needs, you should refer to the Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') available from www.captainschoice.com.au. If you elect to decline the accepted travel insurance, the tour price will be reduced by the amount of the policy but you are required to advise us of your alternate insurance arrangements prior to making your final tour payment. The combined Financial Services Guide and Product Disclosure Statement will be provided when you enquire into this package. A policy will be issued on successful completion of an insurance application form and payment of deposit. Any passengers 81 years and over as well as those with pre-existing conditions must complete a Medical Declaration Form and may be required to pay an additional premium. Cover for passengers 81 years and over and those with pre-existing conditions shall be subject to the insurer's approval.

PARTICIPATION IN THE PROGRAM Reservations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The Tour Operator reserves the absolute discretion, in the event of behaviour detrimental to other persons, to decline any person's participation at any time during the program and cancel that person's participation in the tour, in which case any refund will be on a recoverable cost basis only.

CANCELLATION OF TOUR AND ITINERARY CHANGES In the event that, at the sole discretion of the Tour Operator, it is necessary or advisable for the tour to be cancelled due to such events as outbreak of conflict, government intervention, or withdrawal of traffic rights, or in the event of insufficient participants being available, the refund of all the monies paid, pro rata if applicable after departure, shall constitute a full and final settlement by the Tour Operator and their agents of any obligation to participants. The operation of the tour program, according to the planned itinerary, is at the sole discretion of the Tour Operator, having in mind the welfare of all participants and the safe and prudent operation of the program.

AIRLINE SCHEDULE CHANGES The airline departure, arrival and connection times are correct at the time of brochure printing (February 2011). There are occasions when airlines change their schedules and this may affect the operation of the tour. If an airline schedule change occurs The Captain's Choice Tour cannot be held responsible but we will endeavour to find the most suitable connection according to the original itinerary. Additional costs incurred as a consequence of airline schedules are at the expense of the passenger. Internal flight connections are in Economy Class, unless specified.

GOVERNING RULE The tour proposal set out herein and the participants' acceptance by completion of the registration/booking form creates an agreement between the Tour Operator and the participants subject to the law of the State of Victoria, Australia. Completion of the registration/booking form, together with the participant(s)' signature, verifies acceptance of these terms and conditions.

UNUSED SERVICES No refunds can be given for unused or partially used services during the tour program.

PHOTO/VIDEO Photographs or videos of passengers may be taken which may be used for promotional purposes. If you submit photographs to be included on the group's DVD of images we reserve the right to publish them in future promotional material. Completion of your registration/booking form and acceptance of documents indicates your acceptance and release for this material to be used for promotional or resale purposes.

GST Currently GST is not applicable to international reservations. However, some Australian domestic connection travel may be subject to GST.

GROUP TOUR It may be possible to make individual alterations to the itinerary away from the group tour (e.g. leave/return to Australia earlier/later), however, these changes may be subject to a surcharge.

SOLO TRAVELLERS We will guarantee to arrange for single travellers to share a room in hotels to avoid incurring additional costs. We may accommodate a smoker and a non smoker together, in this instance the room provided will be a non smoking room. If preferred, a single room supplement price is offered if you wish to have single room occupancy. Single Rooms may be limited.

ACCOMMODATION On some tours, where a transit stop is necessitated by airline schedules, overnight or day use accommodation may be provided by the airline (where this applies it is incorporated into the itinerary). If you are not flying directly to the destination or returning directly to Australia this transit accommodation will not be provided.

LOW CARBON COMMITMENT The Captain's Choice Tour works in partnership with Climate Friendly and GreenPower to reduce/offset carbon emissions caused by the electricity used in our office and flights associated with direct business activity (does not include flights for tours). Carbon credits are used to invest in renewable energy projects (such as wind farms). Please visit www.climatefriendly.com for further details. We will continue to work towards a Low Carbon future.

USE AMEX POINTS TO PAY You can use your AMEX Membership Reward Points to pay for part or all of your tour. You can even use points to pay for your deposit. $100 of travel = 10,000 points.
